A Voice in the Night by Bethany Celmar

January 10, 2018

Dear Friends,

I want to share a story of something that happened to me last week. I was astonished to come into church last Sunday and hear the Pastor speak about the Holy Spirit's voice in our lives because that is exactly what happened to me.

I woke up in the early hours of the morning. As I dozed in bed trying to get back to sleep my mind started up with thoughts about what other people in the world are doing at that very moment. I recalled the children in war torn Syria, the famine in Africa, child sex slaves in Cambodia, and all the refugees living in tent cities. Then there were the thoughts of what make the headlines of our news, and the daily gross display of foolishness in our government.

(Read Proverbs this week and compare).

Just as I started to get overwhelmed at the absolute mess of our existence, another voice came into my head. "It's Ok," it said. "It's OK because of the The Word." An immediate sense of relief and peace came over me. This voice said "The Word" as if it was the name of a dear friend. I could sense the joy and anticipation in the voice as it was telling me, "It's going to be ok because: "In the beginning was The Word and the Word was God and the Word was with God." As more thoughts of suffering surfaced, the voice of peace kept speaking.

Many times I wonder at what can be done to stop evil in the world. But the voice was telling me that Jesus (the Word) was there in the beginning and he already knows how all this can be undone. And he did it! He knows every situation and how to bring it to justice. He will have the last say.

This was not my voice; it was the voice of the Holy Spirit. I knew this as it was talking to me. My thoughts only ever take me to anxiety and depression. Any time I try to comfort myself, the message is "just power through it," which isn't really comfort at all. I haven't read the first chapter of John in years, and I have never felt like I fully understand the mystery of those first few verses that were quoted to me. So this definitely was not me thinking these things.

Here is the other amazing thing; there is nothing special about me. I can't think of any good reason why the Holy Spirit would care enough to visit an ungrateful, middle aged woman in rural Ohio on a Thursday morning. I haven't been good about spiritual disciplines. I am prideful, angry and mostly discouraged about where I am in my life right now. My life, like many others, has been shaped by things out of my control that are a result of the sins of other people. Most days I feel like a combination of invisible Hagar in the desert, desperate, childless Hannah praying in the tabernacle, and bitter Jonah because God decides not to destroy people who have caused such pain to others.

I didn't get a big message to share or better direction for my life. But apparently God loves insignificant people like me enough to send his Comforter to help me get through life. He is just looking for people willing to hear him.

A Letter from Sharon Gsellman, Rector of Co-Ed Weekend #3

It's January!

The Lord has not returned.

Instead, He chooses a different plan: a new year.

I have high expectations for all those as yet unscribbled calendar blocks. Do you also sense each day of 2018 will be a gift to open as You walk with Him in the light of His steadfast love?

Do you have an awareness that you are positioned each day of 2018 to reflect the light of God's glory? He will give us many opportunities to honor Him this year. One big one for me will be May 3-6.

Please write May 3-6 onto your calendar, too: VdC Co-ed Weekend #3. Let's use this opportunity as our method to honor the Lord those days. Although always said, it's true: each of us in the Ohio community has an important role to play—a way that the Lord wants to use us in accomplishing His good purposes on those days. What is He asking of you?

Let's redeem those days as a time together with the Lord and each other in some specific way—that is, if He doesn't return for us before then. 😊

You have my love and prayers in 2018. Please pray for me, too.

Your sister in Christ,

Sharon Gsellman

P.S. I'm in the Team Calling Phase of weekend preparation now and especially looking for members who have not recently served. Because I want to navigate this phase using every form of wisdom and discernment that the Holy Spirit gives, I will give you my e-mail: sagsellman@gmail.com. If the Lord has given you a heart's desire to serve as well as other blessings like health, ability to get off work, and ability to give Him time on Mar.10th, 24th, April 14th, and 28th for team meetings, please write me. Maybe you belong in the community with the 14 of us who have already committed to serve.

Editor's note: The goal of Via de Cristo is to strengthen people of faith and to equip people of faith to share the Good News of Jesus Christ in their environments. That takes on many forms! Most Cursillistas (that means people who've been on a VdC Weekend as Pilgrims) become more active in their churches; many start new groups such as for Bible study or teaching children or serving their community; some boldly witness to strangers on the street or in a store; some become Christian mentors to family members or co-workers. They often stay connected to VdC through Reunion Groups and/or Ultreyas. Some become very active as Team members or Secretariat members. Some stay connected with the website, on Facebook or reading the Newsletter. Most value their connection by prayer.

I don't know all the possible ways that Christ is counting on you and you on Him. But I would love to hear your version, to share with others in the VdC Community. Contact me at vdcnewsletterohio@gmail.com or 419-886-4420 or 4025 Andrews Rd., Bellville, 44813. Nancy Martin, Editor

For assistance to find or form a Reunion Group for your Pilgrim—or yourself—contact Fourth Day shepherd Dave Lann, vdclann@yahoo.com or 330-296-6929. He can look in the VdC Archive for names of people in your area and give you their most recent contact information. But some of the info in the Archive is out of date. If you know people who haven't received a Newsletter or heard from a VdC friend in a while, please send their new contact information to Secretariat Webmaster and Data Collector Christine Brill (goosebrill@msn.com or 614-579-8586), or Newsletter Editor Nancy Martin (vdnewsletterohio@gmail.com or 419-886-4420).

Message from VdC Ohio Music Adviser Jen Briner

This newsletter we will look at the song, "Lord I Need You". This is one of my favorite songs to sing and is a newer song for weekend use. It's written by Matt Maher and four co-writers. They used the Psalms for inspiration. (Psalms 150:3, 33:3 and 40:17) Sitting together, they took turns, each writing one line at a time, like "passing a baton". Mr. Maher's favorite line is, "Where You are, I am free, holiness is Christ in me." He says it reminds him of the revelation that our worth and our value are established in the facts that we are made in the image of God, and we are redeemed by Jesus. When God looks at us, He sees His Son. That's a powerful truth!

A year later, Mr. Maher became a dad. He says he is even more impacted by the song now because he has a son who isn't afraid to need a dad. That type of honest needing of a Father by a son should not be a foreign concept to a Christian! God wants us to need Him and lean into Him. Mr. Maher's hope is that Christians not only "need" the Father when life is hard but in the joys of life as well. I will leave you with the chorus:

"Lord I need You, oh I need You, every hour I need You, my one defense, my Righteousness, oh God how I need You."

Amen?

God loves you, I love you,
Jen Briner

Treasurer Raleigh Sandy reports 2017 year-end balances of $877.29 in checking and $10,693.72 in savings accounts. Major expenses in 2018 will be for the Co-ed Weekend #3 of May 3-6 and Clergy Weekend #3 on October 1-4.

We truly wish Paul God’s joy and grace as he transitions into the next journey of service.

This news has opened up an opportunity within our VdC community. If you should feel called to apply for this significant servant roll, please contact me (president@viadecristo.org) for a copy of the job description and an explanation of the Board’s expectations.

We trust in God’s guidance and promise to provide. And please, continue to pray for our sisters and brothers in Christ who are suffering from the devastation of recent weeks.
